EL SEÑOR DA LA BIENVENIDA A TODOS

Todos los que ansiamos ser aceptados encontramos mucho consuelo en las lecturas de hoy. Rico en misericordia, el Señor nos da la bienvenida a todos, sin excepciones. Isaías extiende la invitación de Dios a todas las naciones, incluso a los extranjeros que a menudo despiertan las sospechas de los pueblo privilegiado. San Pablo se aprovecha de estas temibles sospechas provocando los celos de los israelitas: si incluso los gentiles pueden ofrecer una adoración aceptable al único Dios verdadero, entonces el pueblo elegido de Dios seguramente debe hacer lo mismo. De manera similar, Jesús provoca a sus discípulos en el Evangelio de hoy de Mateo. Bantering con una mujer cananea, Jesús saca su tremenda fe, que perdura a pesar del típico rechazo que enfrenta de los israelitas desdeñosos. Ya sea que nos identifiquemos más con los discípulos privilegiados o con la mujer cananea marginada, no podemos confundir la invitación universal de Dios de creer en Aquel que nos salva.

RECHAZADA

Ya sea una u otra vez, hemos experimentado el rechazo o el ridículo, haber sido ignorado en alguna conversación o no nos han invitado a algún festejo o fiesta. Duele ser excluido. Dios hace todas las cosas nuevas; sin embargo, las Escrituras hoy nos invitan a volver al Señor nuestros corazones lastimados. Algunos de nosotros podemos sentirnos de mala gana dar nuestros corazones al Señor, especialmente si nuestro sufrimiento puede involucrar a Dios o a la Iglesia. ¿Por qué derramar nuestro corazón a Dios, después de todo, si Dios parece ser la causa de nuestros problemas? Una trágica perdida, una muerte dolorosa, una catástrofe inevitable puede interrumpir o destruir nuestros planes de vida. Cuando las personas torpemente nos consuelan diciendo: "es la voluntad de Dios", podemos fácilmente desconfiar de Dios y de su voluntad. Si sufrimos de las acciones pecaminosas de los representantes de Dios y ministros de la Iglesia, podemos ver con escepticismo las oraciones de la Iglesia.

Más aún, la mujer cananita de hoy nos persuade a no perder la fe. Los discípulos la hacen sentir menos, quejándose que ella "sigue pidiendo" ayuda. Como niños irritables, los discípulos piden a Jesús que "la eche". Y cuando podemos esperar que Jesús esté de lado de ella, que haga sentir menos a los discípulos y recompense la persistencia de la mujer, él simplemente nos deja perplejos implicando que ella es como un perrito. Impávidamente la mujer acepta las palabras de Jesús y aumenta esa agresión hacia ella con una petición más fuerte: "pero también los perritos se comen las migajas que caen de la mesa de sus amos".

ACEPTADA

La fe de la mujer es irresistible, para Jesús y para nosotros. Jesús le concede lo que su corazón le pide, sanando a su hija en ese mismo momento. Nosotros también ganamos por su indomable confianza en el Señor. Verdaderamente esta mujer es una de las protagonistas del Nuevo Testamento. Cuando las dificultades nos sofocan y nos sentimos como perros callejeros deambulando, podemos recordar las sencillas palabras de la mujer cananita: "¡Señor, ayúdame!"

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE LORD WELCOMES ALL

All of us who ache to be accepted find lavish comfort in today's readings. Rich in mercy, the Lord welcomes all of us—no exceptions. Isaiah extends God's invitation to all nations, even to foreigners who often arouse suspicion from the "in crowd." Saint Paul takes advantage of these fearful suspicions by provoking the Israelites' jealousy: if even Gentiles can offer acceptable worship to the one true God, then God's chosen people should surely do the same. In a similar way, Jesus provokes his disciples in today's Gospel from Matthew. Bantering with a Canaanite woman, Jesus draws out her tremendous faith, which endures despite the typical rejection she faces from scornful Israelites. Whether we identify more with the privileged disciples or the marginalized Canaanite woman, we cannot mistake God's universal invitation to believe in the One who saves us.

REJECTED

At one time or another, we have all been rejected or ridiculed, left out of a conversation, or not invited to a party. It hurts to be excluded. God makes all things new, though, and our scriptures today invite us to turn over our aching hearts to the Lord. Some of us might feel reluctant to give our hearts to the Lord, especially if our suffering somehow involves God or the Church. Why pour out hearts to God, after all, if God seems to be the cause of our troubles? A tragic loss, a painful death, or an unavoidable catastrophe can disrupt or destroy our life plans. When people clumsily console us then, saying, "It's God's will," we can easily become suspicious of God and the almighty will. If we suffer from the sinful structures or actions of God's representatives and ministers in the Church, we might look with skepticism at the prayers of that same Church.

Even so, our Canaanite woman today persuades us not to lose hope. The disciples scorn her, complaining that she "keeps calling" out for help. Like irritable children, the disciples ask Jesus to "send her away." And just when we might expect Jesus to take her side, to scold the disciples and reward the woman's persistence, he shocks us by implying she is a dog. Undaunted, the woman accepts Jesus' remark and parlays its aggression into her own forceful plea: "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters."

ACCEPTED

The woman's faith is irresistible—to Jesus, and to us. Jesus grants her heart's desire, healing her daughter from that very moment. We too are won over by her indomitable confidence in the Lord. Truly, this woman is one of the heroes of the New Testament. When difficulties suffocate us and we feel turned away like a stray dog, we can recall the Canaanite woman's simple words: "Lord, help me."

BLESSED MIRACULOUS CRUCIFIX

Venerated in the Church of San Marcello al Corso in Rome

PRAYER TO CHRIST CRUCIFIED IN TIME OF PESTILENCE AND CONTAGION

Dear Lord Jesus,
Saviour of the World,
our secure and unfailing Hope,
have mercy on us
and deliver us from every evil!
We beg you to overcome
the scourge of this fearful virus,
which is spreading from place to place.
We beg you to heal the sick,
to protect the healthy
and to support those who work
for the healthcare of all.
Show us your Face of mercy, O Lord,
and save us in your great love.
With the intercession of Holy Mary,
your Mother and ours,
ever close to us in our needs,
we ask you this, Lord Jesus,
who live and reign for ever and ever.
Amen.

CHURCH SAFETY GUIDELINES

LEARN HOW YOU CAN HELP US TO KEEP OUR CHURCH SAFE FOR YOU & YOUR FAMILY.

As we gather to celebrate Mass as a community of faith, we ask that everyone do their part to prevent the spread of COVID-19. Please follow these guidelines as a means of showing charity to our neighbors.

- Stay home if you are elderly, vulnerable to COVID-19 or live with someone who is vulnerable. The Sunday Mass obligation remains suspended. For those who do not attend Mass, know that God's infinite grace and mercy remain abundantly available.
- Archbishop Jose Gomez strongly urges that we receive Holy Communion on the hand for the common good.
- Everyone should wear a facemask while on church property. Place it on before leaving your car. After receiving the Body of Christ in the hand you can lower your mask to receive and immediately place it back over your nose and mouth.
- Please observe social distancing throughout your time on parish property; before, during and after Mass. Individuals or household units should remain 6 or more feet away from others.
- Place your offertory in the baskets by the altar before mass or during the offertory.
- Use hand sanitizer when entering and leaving the parish. Bring your own if possible, to use before receiving Communion.

Build appropriate social media relationships

Online relationships are important, especially for teens and young people. But adults who use social media to connect with the children in their lives need to be sure that they are building appropriate relationships. Before sending a friend request, consider the "PAN" standard. While used commonly for appropriate real-life touch, in today's increasingly virtual use, PAN is a good benchmark for online interactions. Communications should be Public, Appropriate, and Non-sexual. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS article "Before you send a young person a 'friend request'" at https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
