TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The PASTOR'S Corner

Jesus asks the disciples who the people say he is. Some say, "John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets." This odd answer shows that the disciples were beginning to form a rudimentary understanding that it was possible to rise from the dead. So it is puzzling that when Jesus says that he will "rise after three days," they would seemingly not quite comprehend this. But when Jesus asks, "Who do you say that I am?" Peter speaks for the disciples: "You are the Christ." Moments later, the rather confused Peter objects to the Jesus' assertion that he will suffer and die. Jesus stunningly rebukes him for his objection, "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Although Peter is beginning to form true faith in his declaration of belief in Christ, he still is thinking like a human, and has not yet begun to see the world through God's eyes. Peter's faith has not yet grown to its full stature, as it will after the Resurrection. Our gift of faith sees and believes the suffering and death of Christ, but we still might not see the consequences of that faith. Our works arise out of our belief in and love for the Lord. Through our faith, we must not only believe, but help others as Christ would do. This is seeing the world through God's eyes.

Jesús le pregunta a sus discípulos qué es lo que dice la gente de quién es él. Algunos dicen: "Juan el Bautista, otros que Elías; y otros, que alguno de los profetas". Esta extraña respuesta muestra que los discípulos estaban empezando a formar un entendimiento rudimentario de que era posible volver de la muerte. Así que es desconcertante que cuando Jesús dice que él "resucitara al tercer día", aparentemente no lo entenderían. Pero cuando Jesús pregunta "Y ustedes, ¿quién dicen que soy yo?" Pedro habla por los discípulos "Tú eres el Mesías". Momentos después, el confundido Pedro se opone a lo que Jesús dijo de que él sufriría y moriría. Jesús sorprendido, lo reprende por su objeción: "¡Apártate de mí, Satanás! Porque tú no juzgas según Dios, sino según los hombres". Aunque Pedro está empezando a formar una verdadera fe en su declaración en Cristo, él todavía está pensando como un ser humano, y no ha empezado todavía a ver el mundo a través de los ojos de Dios. La fe de Pedro todavía no ha alcanzado su altura completa, lo cual pasará hasta después de la Resurrección. Nuestro don de la fe ve y cree que el sufrimiento y muerte de Cristo, pero quizá todavía no podemos ver las consecuencias de esa fe. Nuestras obras surgen de nuestra creencia y amor por el Señor. Por medio de nuestra fe, no solamente debemos creer, sino ayudar a otras personas como Cristo lo haría. Esto es ver el mundo a través de los ojos de Dios.

From Victory Retreat led by Fr. Tim Grumbach on Saturday, October 20, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Pope Francis calls us to strive for holiness in our everyday lives. He reminds us that this is an ongoing spiritual battle, yet "This battle is sweet, for it allows us to rejoice each time the Lord triumphs in our lives." We will reflect on how sinfulness separates and isolates, and how God desires and brings about healing and communion. Encouraged by the truth that we do not fight this battle alone, we trust that it has already been won in us. Mass available: 4:00 p.m. Donation $30. Lunch included. Please RSVP at 310-397-8676 or email: culvercity@paulinemedia.com

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In this country, we don't name our churches "The Fourth Avenue Catholic Church," but rather seek a patron saint or mystery of faith. We inherit this tradition from an old Roman custom via medieval England. Interestingly, that has not been the practice elsewhere, and parishes abroad often do carry just the name of the neighborhood. In Ireland, the Roman (English) practices didn't take hold, and so churches are known simply by the street they are on, or by a nickname. Saint Francis of Assisi in Dublin is often called "Adam and Eve" after a pub in the same street. The pub sign is an interesting carving of our first parents, so they become patrons by default. Increasingly in the United States, we are seeing a familiar European pattern emerge when a few churches, each bearing the name of a patron saint or mystery, are gathered into one parish that bears a different name. Thus, we might hear of a parish of "Midvalley City" comprised of Saint Mary, Saint Francis, and Saint Ursula churches. Once a church has been consecrated, its name may not normally be changed. Therefore, when parishes are merged, a new name is given to the parish, which may or may not be that of a heavenly patron, but the church buildings retain their names. In the process, we have lost sight of some worthy patrons of old, but have also seen new parishes open dedicated to twentieth-century saints like Edith Stein, Katharine Drexel, and Mother Teresa.
