Jubilee Year of Mercy

July 24th 2016

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

World Youth Day in Krakow:

"Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy"

This week, the universal Church focuses in prayerful solidarity on World Youth Day in Krakow, where WYD's founder, Saint John Paul II, served as archbishop. Its theme coincides with that of Pope Francis' Jubilee Year of Mercy: "Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy" (Matthew 5:7). Today's Gospel echoes the same theme, as Jesus unites prayer with mercy in "The parable of the persistent friend." Jesus teaches us not only what words to pray, but what deeds must match authentic prayer. How beautifully down-to-earth is Jesus' portrait of a God who can be trusted to do what is best for us. A pesky neighbor disturbs a sleeping friend and disrupts the household. Yet beautiful images unfold. Persevering prayer receives active, practical mercy in loaves of bread, recalling Luke's unique expression for the Eucharist, "the breaking of bread" (Luke 24:35; Acts 2:42). WYD, the Jubilee, and Jesus thus unite to define perfect prayer as persevering communion with God and unconditional mercy toward our neighbor.

Jesus talks about praying for whatever we need with faith and confidence, but he ends by asking, "How much more with the Father . . . give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?" (Luke 1:13). Is he saying there are limits to what we can ask for?

"Be careful what you ask for," the saying warns. Just because we want something doesn't mean it will be good for us. But if we have enough faith to pray for something, we probably would not pray for anything evil. So what is Jesus really saying? He is giving us two lessons about prayer.

First, he assures us that God does hear our prayers and answers them. Many people take "ask and you shall receive" so literally that they expect God to do their bidding no matter what they want. But God is free to do what is best for us, free to answer some prayers with a no when what we seek is against God's will. So maybe our first prayer should be to ask God to show us what we really need.

That leads us to the second lesson: prayer changes us, not God. If we truly pray as Jesus prayed, we would say, "Not as I will, but as you will" (Matthew 26:39). It's not easy to change our minds about what we want or need. To change our desires from selfish to holy takes a lot of power, the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus was raised from the dead by that power and we will be, too (Romans 8:11). So when Jesus promises that the Father will give the Spirit to us for asking, the Spirit is both the source of and the answer to our prayers. Let us ask the Spirit to empower us to desire and pray for what we really need.

Pastor's Corner

.. Jesús habla de orar por lo que necesitamos con fe y confianza, pero que termina con la pregunta "¿Cuánto más con el Padre... Dará el Espíritu Santo a los que se lo pidan?" (Lucas 1:13). ¿Está diciendo que hay límites a lo que podemos pedir? "Ten cuidado con lo que pides", advierte el dicho. El hecho de que queremos algo no significa que vaya a ser bueno para nosotros. Pero si tenemos suficiente fe para orar por algo, probablemente no orar para nada mal. Entonces, ¿qué está diciendo Jesús realmente? Él nos está dando dos lecciones sobre la oración. En primer lugar, nos asegura que Dios escucha nuestras oraciones y responde a ellos. Muchas personas toman "Pedid y recibiréis" tan literalmente que esperan a Dios para cumplir sus órdenes sin importar lo que quieren. Pero Dios es libre de hacer lo que es mejor para nosotros, libres para responder a unas oraciones con un no cuando lo que buscamos está en contra de la voluntad de Dios. Así que tal vez nuestra primera oración debe ser pedir a Dios que nos muestre lo que realmente necesitamos. Eso nos lleva a la segunda lección: la oración nos cambia, no Dios. Si verdaderamente orar como Jesús oró, diríamos, "no como yo quiero, sino como tú" (Mateo 26:39). No es fácil cambiar de opinión acerca de lo que queremos o necesitamos. Para cambiar nuestros deseos de egoísta por santa hace una gran cantidad de energía, el poder del Espíritu Santo. Jesús fue resucitado de entre los muertos por el poder y que será, también (Romanos 8:11). Por eso, cuando Jesús promete que el Padre dará el Espíritu a nosotros para pedir, el Espíritu es tanto la fuente de y la respuesta a nuestras oraciones. Pidamos al Espíritu para darnos el poder de desear y pedir lo que realmente necesitamos.

DID YOU KNOW?

A study on online victimization found that approximately one in five children receive sexual solicitation from a stranger over the internet. Given today's reliance on online contact, imagine how much that number has grown over the last several years. Children who use the internet cannot be totally safe from dangers, because the internet is open to all, but parents should monitor activity and sites visited to ensure that their kids aren't being contacted by predators. Talk to your child about internet safety and appropriate vs. inappropriate communication. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article "An Overview of 'Online' Problems and Risks," email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org call(213)637-7227.
